

Communication Tools

You'll be planning a lot of great programs in your neighborhood. Don't keep them a secret. Spread the word. This will help others in the neighborhood join the efforts and take part in making a difference. Here are a few ways to get the word out:

- Neighborhood newsletter
- Weekly area newspapers
- Schools, churches and club newsletters
- Door-to-door handouts
- Neighborhood survey by mail, phone & door-to-door
- Person-to-person by phone among friends & neighbors
- Bulletins, notices, pamphlets, posters and flyers placed with permission in schools, laundromats, libraries, supermarkets, local restaurants, stores & waiting rooms in dentist/doctor's offices
- A neighborhood web page
- The Adams County web page
- Booths at local events
- Speakers at business groups, service clubs, youth groups, schools and churches
- Cooperative efforts with adjoining neighborhoods
- Lawn signs
- Letters
- Telephone tree
- E-mail
