

ADAMS COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES CENTER

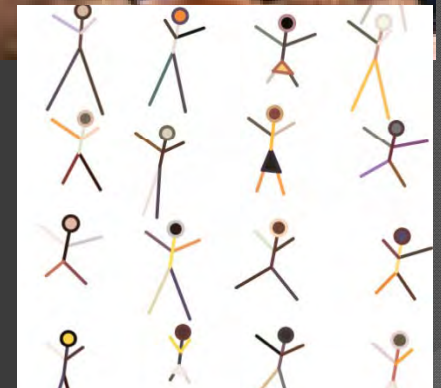

Artistic Design Reference

Design Elements / History
April 22, 2016

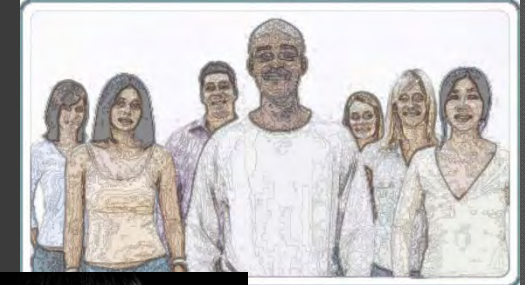

Project Purpose / Goals

- Co-Locating all Human Services into a single location
- 750 Staff Serving 500 Clientele (per day)
- Our Visions and Goals:
 - “Beautiful environments create beautiful people.” Bill Strickland
 - Elevate perception of what people can be.
 - Should be a beacon in the community.
 - Improve collaboration.

Human Services Provided

- Food Assistance (SNAP)
- EBT Card Issuance
- Medicaid Eligibility Determination
- Adult Financial Assistance
- Colorado Works (TANF)
- Child Care Assistance
- Child Support Services
- Child Welfare Services
 - Staff offices and Family Visitation/Family Meetings
- Adult Protective Services
- Head Start Administrative Offices
- Adams County Housing Authority
- Workforce and Business Center
- Veterans Service Office
- Low-Income Energy Assistance (LEAP)

The History

A large family apple and cherry orchard was established in 1870 on 765 acres in this region of Westminster. The orchard provided for the community, drawing everyone in the surrounding area in the spring to enjoy the flowers and in the fall to help with the harvest.

The Orchard Analogy:

Rhythm

Linear

Wood / Nature

Pops of Color

Contrast

Aesthetic Beauty

Harvest / Community Support

Most Recently

Development created by Western Bell, and successors including Lucent and Avaya was focused on technology, research and development, and manufacturing.

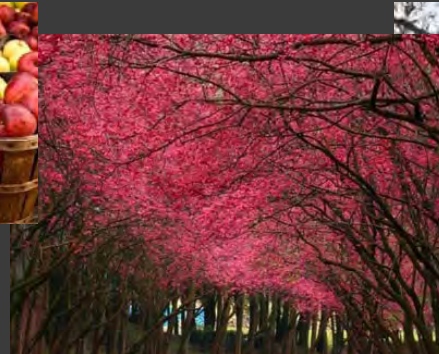

Original Development
Groundbreaking 1970
(looking NW)

Development
Completed in 1972
(looking SE)

History, Community & Context

- In 1870 was an Apple & Cherry Orchard
- Most Recently was Technology Center (Western Bell through Avaya)
- Context: From Orchard to Innovation: Respecting the past, embracing the future

Design Concept Imagery

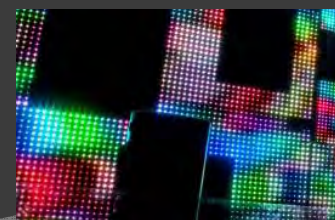

COMMUNITY

CONNECTION

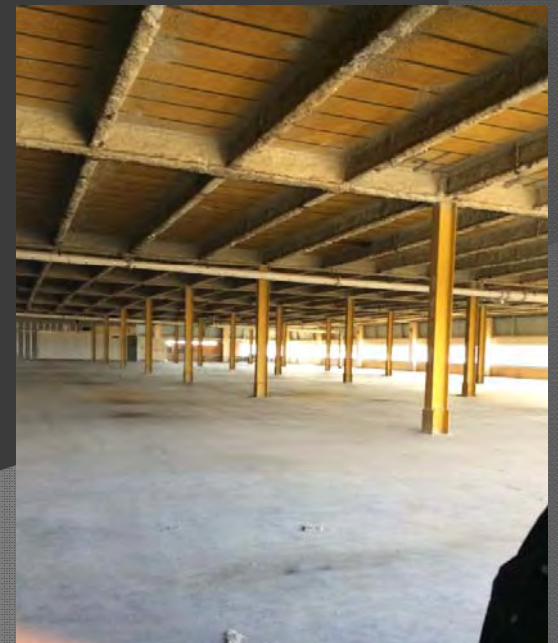

TRANSFORMATION

ENERGY

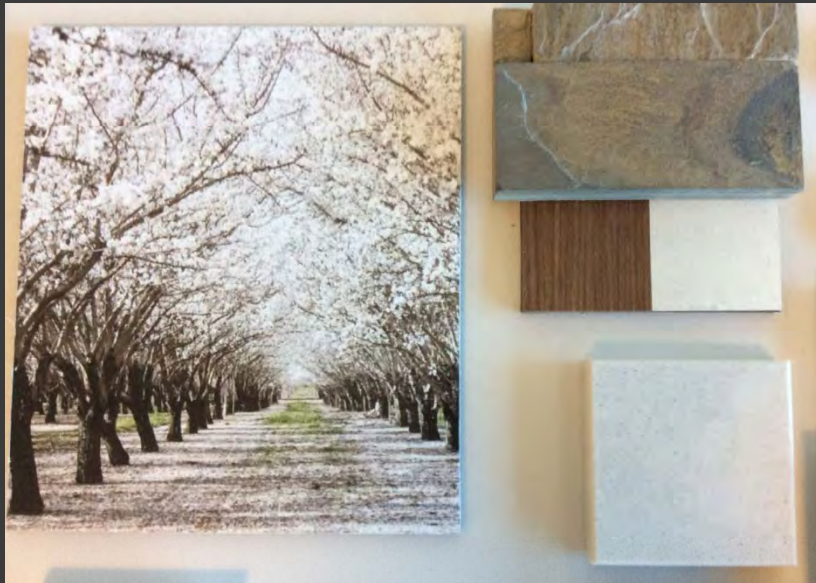

Existing Building

Exterior Finishes

Interior Finishes

Our Transformation

