

UNISON HOUSING PARTNERS

They provide access to affordable housing, rental assistance, housing searches, utility assistance, budgeting, and other services related to housing. They're Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters (HIPPI) is a unique partnership between Unison and low-income empowerment that brings an internationally recognized parenting program into the homes of parents of 3- and 4-year-olds. HIPPI is an evidence-based family support model that works directly with parents to teach activities and skills needed to prepare children for school. For more information, contact Alicia Guevara at aguevara@unisonhp.org.

MAIN | 303.227.2075

UNITED FOR A NEW ECONOMY (UNE)

UNE focuses on Housing, Economic, Immigration, and Racial Justice. UNE helps renters with their rights and leases.

MAIN | 303.936.0503

WOMEN, INFANTS, & CHILDREN (WIC)

WIC assists families with children up to 5 years old and/or women who are pregnant, just had a baby, or are breastfeeding. WIC provides healthy foods, nutrition education, and referrals to other community resources. To enroll, visit tchd.org/WIC or call 303.255.6230. WIC is available at Adams County Human Services on Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

MAIN | 303.255.6230

YAHWEH HEALTH CARE (YHC)

Our purpose is to capture individuals in between establishing healthcare services—those who are unemployed, homeless or at risk of being homeless, hungry, and in need of basic services such as routine health screens and basic health services. Basic health care services include vaccinations, simple medical exams, testing for high blood pressure, minor wounds, minor illnesses, diabetes, etc.

MAIN | 303.949.7528

Adams County Human Services Center

11860 Pecos St., Westminster, CO 80234

For more information about our community partners and services:

720.523.2813 | hscpartners@adcogov.org
adcogov.org/adams-county-community-partners

ADAMS COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES

Adams County Human Services helps thousands of people each year, but we don't do it alone. Partner organizations are critical to our success.

HUMAN SERVICES

HUMAN SERVICES

A PRECIOUS CHILD

Assists children and families facing difficult life challenges such as abuse and neglect, crises situations, and poverty. An emergency children's clothing boutique is located on the first floor of the building. Clients must be accompanied by an employee at all times. For eligible families, children's clothing, diapers, and hygiene products are available at no charge as well as vouchers for the main location's larger center.

MAIN | 303.466.4272

CASA OF ADAMS AND BROOMFIELD COUNTIES

CASA is a volunteer-based, nonprofit organization that trains and supervises community volunteers to represent the best interests of our most vulnerable citizens—child victims of physical, sexual, or emotional abuse and neglect. Volunteer CASA Advocates are appointed by judges to be a voice for these children in court.

HSC | 720.523.2855

CENTER FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

Center for People with Disabilities assists people with all disabilities in overcoming barriers to independent living, at no cost to them. A continuum of programs provides Independent Living Skills, Advocacy, Information & Referral, Peer Support, and Nursing Home and Youth Transitions; services for Veterans, people with Visual Impairment, Employment, and other specialized services.

MAIN | 303.442.8662, HSC | 720.523.2866

CSU EXTENSION

Colorado State University Extension (CSU Extension) offers educational programs for youth and adults on basic personal finance. CSU Extension provides expertise on various topics from agriculture, horticulture, 4-H youth development, and financial well-being. Email djuarezsanchez@adcogov.org for information.

MAIN | 303.637.8113

THE DENVER INDIAN CENTER

Our mission is to empower American Indian youth, elders, families, and communities by promoting self-determination and economic, mental, and physical health through education, advocacy, and cultural enrichment, since 1983. We offer supportive services, such as a Fatherhood class, to help fathers have more meaningful engagement with their families.

MAIN | 303.936.2688

DENVER INDIAN FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

DIFRC helps strengthen vulnerable American Indian/Alaska Native children and families through collaborative and culturally responsive services. They provide child welfare support services and collaborate with other community agencies, especially those that serve the needs of Native Americans.

MAIN | 720.500.1020

EARLY CHILDHOOD PARTNERSHIP OF ADAMS COUNTY

Early Childhood Partnership of Adams County makes it easier for families to get parent education, community services, and tools so children are ready to succeed in school and in life. They provide support to families with parenting classes to improve child development and later school success as well as intensive care navigation to be connected to two-generation services.

MAIN | 303.428.2929, HSC | 720.523.2827

FAMILY TREE

Family Tree helps people overcome child abuse, domestic violence, and homelessness to become safe, strong, and self-reliant. Team members from the Domestic Violence Outreach, Housing and Family Stabilization; TANF Stable Families; and SafeCare programs are onsite to help directly connect individuals to our services. Additional programs for Adams County include Roots of Courage emergency residential services for domestic violence survivors and CFRT for Adams County referred families.

MAIN | 303.422.2133, DV CRISIS LINE | 303.420.6752

FOSTER SOURCE

Our mission is to provide relevant training, resources, and support to foster parents, from a trauma-informed approach, giving them the skills and confidence to spark healing in vulnerable children.

MAIN | 303.618.4331, HSC | 720.523.4010

JOYFUL JOURNEYS

Joyful Journeys helps improve the lives of families by providing critical human services like food, clothes, hygiene products, baby items, and school supplies. It also has a thrift store in Broomfield with clothing, furniture, and other items at a low cost or for free, based on the ability to pay.

MAIN | 303.667.9695

LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE

Our mission is to fill the gaps left between shelters, food pantries, and other resources necessary to take someone from experiencing homelessness to self-sufficiency.

MAIN | 720.979.2322, LYLSHINE2@GMAIL.COM

MAPLE STAR

Maple Star's trauma-specific approach provides individualized and holistic services that promote wellness, durability, and healing through the context of a relationship. Family must be referred through Adams County Child Welfare.

THE SENIOR HUB

The mission of The Senior Hub is to advance the quality of life for older adults through advocacy, community partnerships, and a variety of direct services planned to sustain an independent, healthy aging experience. It operates a Meals on Wheels Program and provides volunteer programs and opportunities.

MAIN | 303.426.4408

SENIORS' RESOURCE CENTER

The Seniors' Resource Center provides person-focused, coordinated services to enhance independence, dignity, and quality of life. The A-Lift program provides low-cost or free transportation services to eligible individuals.

MAIN | 303.235.6772, A-LIFT | 303.235.6952

SERVICIOS DE LA RAZA

Servicios de la Raza provides and advocates for culturally responsive, essential human services and opportunities to our community. They help individuals complete applications for benefits (Medicaid, food assistance, etc.), transition back to the community after being in the justice system, and offer other support services.

MAIN | 303.458.5851

