I-1 and I-2 Modifications

- Based on recent rezoning cases and Commissioner feedback, staff have reviewed the uses allowed in the I-1 and I-2 zone districts relative to the district's intent and are proposing modifications.
 - I-1 District: The purpose of the Industrial-1 District is to provide a general commercial and restricted industrial district designed to provide for a variety of compatible business, warehouse, wholesale, offices and very limited industrial uses.
 - I-2 District: The purpose of the Industrial-2 District is to accommodate light manufacturing, processing, fabrication, assembly, and storage of non-hazardous and/or non-obnoxious material and products as well as allowing service facilities for industries and their employees.
 - I-3 District: The purpose of the Industrial-3 District is to provide a heavy industrial district designed to accommodate more industrial enterprises.

I-1 and I-2 Modifications

- Suggested changes:
 - No longer allowing in I-1 (permitted or conditional) any use that falls under the definition of, and making them conditional uses in I-2:
 - Heavy manufacturing or processing
 - Heavy industry
 - Changing certain uses from permitted to conditional uses in I-1
 - Accessory outdoor storage in excess of 25% and up to 100% of the building area
 - Moderate manufacturing or processing: cement, cinder block, concrete, lime or plaster manufacturing
 - Landscape storage yards

I-1 and I-2 Modifications

- Suggested changes (cont.):
 - Adding a definition for Auto towing and storage yards and moving it to the heavy retail and heavy services uses category
 - Proposing it to be not allowed in the I-1 district and conditional in the I-2 district
 - Definition: The assembling or standing of damaged or impounded vehicles for indeterminate periods of time. Such use shall not include the wrecking, dismantling or repairing of vehicles.
 - Changing the name and definition of ‘trucking and general warehousing, including mini-storage’ to ‘general warehousing, including mini-storage’
